

STINGER HOCKEY

November 25, 1985

MONTREAL - Last Thursday night's 5-4 loss to the Trois Rivières Patriotes was an excellent warm up for the Concordia Hockey Stingers who head to Glens Falls, New York for a Thanksgiving Tournament this weekend.

The Stingers were at their best when they hosted the Patriotes. It was a fast paced game that saw the score see-saw between the two teams before Trois Rivières wrapped up the win with the go ahead goal at 17:23 of the third period.

Goaltender Ken Hrivnak was outstanding in the Stinger net while Luc Champagne, Dave Poeta, Mark Kosturik and Neil Trineer provided Concordia with the offence.

This weekend the Stingers will compete with some top American teams in Glens Falls, New York. Clarkson, Lowell and St. Lawrence, all division I teams, will challenge Concordia at the Thanksgiving Tournament.

The Stingers head to New York with a 6-5 record, including wins over Toronto, Mount Allison and Guelph. At the tournament, the Stingers will be relying heavily on All-Canadian Mark Kosturik 15-11-26, Frank Morris 13-9-22 and Brent Cater 7-12-19 to lead the Stinger offensive attack. Captain Giles Lascelle and Neil Trineer will anchor the defence.

Concordia's next home game is December 3rd when the Stingers host their cross-town rivals, the McGill Redmen.

-30-